Administrative Doings:

- The MBA Association Constitution was revised and finalized by officers and present members. The Constitution can be viewed through the MBA Association website.
- All usage of Indiana University logos or wording must first be approved by Ann Marie Damler per recent changes incorporated by the university.
- Budget proposals for the spring semester of 2007 must be submitted to Student Activities by October 20, 2006. The secretary will be responsible for this.

Events and Planned Activities:

Story Tellers

- Our first Story Teller speaking event is tentatively scheduled for November of 2006. A recent IU Kokomo MBA graduate is being contacted about speaking at the event and details are pending.
- The tentative time of the Story Teller events will be after MBA evening classes (8:30 p.m.) and will last about an hour. Place has yet to be determined.
- Pizza and refreshments will be provided for those who attend
- There will be three Story Teller events scheduled for the spring semester of 2007 and they will take place during the first week of February, March, and April.
- The following suggestions were made for spring semester Story Tellers:
  - Jim Buck (State Representative)
  - Greg McCarty (Partner in local CPA firm)
  - Ball State Professor
  - Member of Indianapolis Colts front office

Graduation Party

- Tentatively scheduled for the first week in May.
- Details for the event are pending.
