

WANTED!

Orientation Leaders

What is an Orientation Leader?

An Orientation Leader (OL) is a student leader who assists in a variety of programs that involve helping new IU Kokomo students and their families become familiar with IU Kokomo campus life. OLs create an atmosphere that minimizes anxiety, promotes positive attitudes, and stimulates excitement for learning at IU Kokomo.

What Would I Do?

- Be a leader and employee for IU Kokomo
- Participate in New Student Orientations
- Have the opportunity to make connections with students, faculty and staff
- Be a positive role model and mentor to new students
- Assist with Week of Welcome
- Assist with New Student Convocation

Requirements:

- Must have and maintain a minimum 2.8 GPA
- 100 credit hours or less attained with a minimum of 12 credit hours
- Must be present at all training meetings
- Must have a positive attitude, high energy level, excitement for working with a team, an open mind, and demonstrate great pride in IU Kokomo

How Do I Benefit?

- Receive educational award to assist with educational expenses and receive competitive hourly pay
- Receive significant leadership experience and skills and build resume for future leadership opportunities
- Enhance communication skills and gain personal development
- Develop professional relationships with faculty, administrators, staff, and students

2009 New Student Orientation Dates

Saturday, May 2, 2009 Thursday, August 13, 2009
Saturday, June 20, 2009 Saturday, July 18, 2009
Wednesday, January 7, 2009

FALL CONVOCATION DAY – Thursday, August 20, 2009

For More Information Contact University Division, East Bldg, Room 120, (765) 455-9309