

“My name is Finote Asfaw. Growing up in Ethiopia, I did not ever imagine attending university in America, but now I am in my junior(2nd) year of the nursing program at Indiana University Kokomo. This has been a great opportunity for me to grow in my personal and professional life. My professors at IU Kokomo have been helpful and assisted me throughout my last three years of classes. I have been able to meet other international and local students and we have been able to support and motivate each other as we pursue our individual goals. I know there are several international students that Indiana University Kokomo is serving right now. As an international student I felt very welcomed here at Indiana University Kokomo. Hope this is true for all of our international students. If you need any help with anything and don't know what to do or where to go we are here for you to help.”

“I will be in the cafeteria on Monday's from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm so please stop by and see me! You can also contact me by campus email at fasfaw@iuk.edu”.
